

US-4B.2 - Allow the user to configure which courses to track

Accessibility: inputs and validation messages are readable and operable via screen reader.

- Given Open Data schedule mode is enabled, when the user opens course configuration, then the app allows the user to input or select course identifiers (e.g., subject + course number + section).

view = calendar

Daily Schedule

Course List

Add Course

JD

Input academic year (e.g., 2026)*

YYYY

Select term (e.g., Fall, Winter, Summer)*

Term

(Only for Summer term) specify session

First summer session

Input subject code (e.g., ENGR, COMM)*

XXXX

Input catalog number (e.g., 201, 321, 445)*

XXX(X)

Input section code (e.g., 01, UU)*

XX(X)(X)

Add Course

Map

Calendar

POI

Navigation

Tab to show which page is open. Right now, user is on the 'add course' page

Placeholder shows expected input format (4 integers)

Drop down option for term selection to limit possible user errors

Non-obligatory field, only mandatory is 'Summer' term is selected. This field does not have the mandatory '*'

Placeholder shows expected input format (4 chars)

Placeholder shows expected input format (3-4 chars)

Placeholder shows expected input format (2-4 chars)

Add course button is disabled because information is not inputted

view = calendar

Daily Schedule Course List Add Course JD

Input academic year (e.g., 2026)*

2026

Select term (e.g., Fall, Winter, Summer)*

Winter

(Only for Summer term) specify session

First summer session

Input subject code (e.g., ENGR, COMM)*

SOEN

Input catalog number (e.g., 201, 321, 445)*

390

Input section code (e.g., 01, UU)*

R

Add Course

Successful text confirmation is displayed

Successfully added course

SOEN 390 R

Winter 2026

TUT R RA: Monday, 20:30 – 21:20, SGW
CL Building 220

Since the 'Winter' term is selected, the next field is disabled to prevent user error

Add course button is enabled once all the required fields are properly filled out

Successfully added course is displayed and will appear in the tab 'Course List'

Map

Calendar

POI

- The app validates the input format and shows a clear error if the course cannot be found.

view = calendar

Daily Schedule Course List Add Course JD

Input academic year (e.g., 2026)*
2026

Select term (e.g., Fall, Winter, Summer)*
Winter

(Only for Summer term) specify session
First summer session

Input subject code (e.g., ENGR, COMM)*
SOEN

Input catalog number (e.g., 201, 321, 445)*
39034COMM

Error: Input does not match expected format XXX(X). Please try again.

Input section code (e.g., 01, UU)*
XX(X)(X)

Add Course

Error: There is an invalid input, please review error(s) and try again.

Map Calendar POI

Accessibility
Error message is displayed and prompts user to check error and try again. There is a text indicator at the invalid field for colour blind users

Invalid field is highlighted in red to indicate error in this field

'Add course' button is disabled due to incorrect input and missing field input.

- The user can add and remove courses from the tracked list.

