

US-5.6 - Show indoor directions between floors

Accessibility: floor-change instructions are displayed as text and are readable by screen reader.

- Given Start and Destination are in the same building but on different floors, when the user requests directions, then the app generates a route that includes a vertical transition (stairs and/or elevator).
- The route clearly indicates when the user must change floors and which connector to use (stairs or elevator).

view = indoor directions

< Edit selection

H921

JD

Starting destination: H833

End destination: H921

8th floor:

Turn right and walk towards middle hallway

2 m

Turn left

0 m

Continue straight into main corridor

3 m

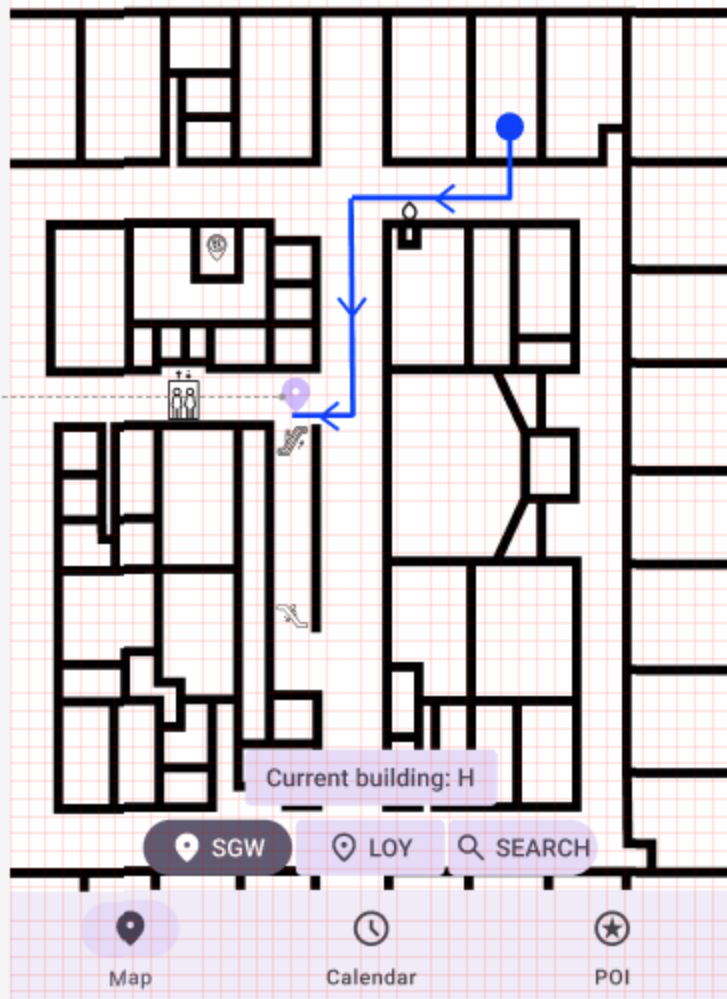

Turn right and take escalator to 9th floor

9th floor →

Text shows which floor user is currently viewing

User can go to next floor as they reach this step

Icon shows intermediate step (take escalator to 9th floor)

view = indoor directions

< Edit selection

H921

JD

Starting destination: H833

End destination: H921

9th floor:

Turn right and walk towards middle hallway

2 m

Turn left and continue straight

5 m

Turn right and continue straight

5 m

Turn right and walk towards destination

3 m

Destination will be on the left

8th floor <

User navigated to 9th floor as indicated

User can go back to viewing 8th floor

